FANTASTIC SNOW Marmot Basin is the northernmost Rocky Mountain ski area at a latitude of 53 degrees north. With the highest base elevation of any major ski area in Canada, over 400 centimeters of dry, light Rocky Mountain powder snow blankets the area annually from November through May. Natural snow combined with a state-of-the-art snowmaking system guarantees great conditions all season long!

DIVERSE TERRAIN Skiers and snowboarders can explore a wide variety of runs, from novice to expert, on four mountain faces. You will uncover long, perfectly groomed trails, high alpine bowls, treed runs, and steep chutes filled with Rocky Mountain powder snow. With 1,675 acres (678 hectares) of skiable terrain and seven modern lifts, the only time to rest is in the lodge, not waiting in lines. Families and experts have room to carve turns at their leisure and the mountain is designed to guide everyone to the mountain chalets.

BREATHTAKING SCENERY Virtually every location on the mountain is an inspirational viewpoint. Jasper National Park, Canada’s largest Rocky Mountain park, is an integral part of the UNESCO Canadian Rockies World Heritage Site. At Marmot Basin, you are surrounded by protected wilderness in every direction. Positive memories will be etched in your mind as you experience the only ski destination in this unparalleled paradise.

AUTHENTIC MOUNTAIN TOWN Everyone leaves the mountain at the end of a ski day to mix with the locals who are quick with a smile and a tale or two as they share their slice of heaven with visitors. Enjoy Canadian and international cuisine and a lively night scene while staying in quaint inns or luxurious lodges. Many skiers and snowboarders who visit Jasper once, end up as locals! Venture beyond the crowds this winter to an authentic Canadian, mountain town.

WILDLIFE & ACTIVITIES Winter visitors regularly get to see elk (wapiti), bighorn sheep, deer, coyotes, and more rarely, wolves, lynx, moose or even a woodland caribou. Jasper is unique among ski areas for wildlife viewing opportunities. The community offers many other great Canadian pursuits such as cross country skiing, ice skating on frozen lakes, ice canyon walks, snowshoeing treks, dog-sledding and regional helicopter skiing or cat-skiing.

THE SNOW AT MARMOT IS INDESCRIBABLE. IT IS LIKE YOU GO TO A POWDER HEAVEN THAT JUST KEEPS GETTING BETTER AND BETTER.

SKIING IN ALBERTA IS ALL ABOUT the Front Range of the Rockies: tilted limestone layer cakes skirted in vast swaths of untouched forest, constellated by glaciers and the robins-egg-blue lakes gathered at their feet, scenery lauded as some of the world’s most impressive — even by Europeans, who know something of mountain beauty.

Alberta’s top ski destinations all lie within the UNESCO World Heritage collective that includes Banff and Jasper national parks, linked by the Bow Valley Parkway between Banff and Lake Louise, and the world famous Icefields Parkway joining the latter to the town of Jasper and Marmot Basin, where I’d begun my most recent Front Range ski trip.

Driving north, Marmot spun into view just before Jasper proper, a series of compact ribbons falling toward the broad valley of the Athabasca River. Any notions that it was a small area, however, were laid quickly to rest by terrain unseen from the road. Marmot skis large: a spectrum of broad pistes in the European tradition mix liberally with chunks of legitimate alpine adventure surrounding the Knob and Eagle Ridge chairs. Amazingly, though the last snowfall was many days previous, the treed glades of Eagle East delivered lingering powder, testament to the low mid-week traffic of an area where I’ve never once waited to board a lift.

While the upper mountain deposits you at the hewed-wood warmth of Paradise Lodge, lower runs gather meticulously toward a family-friendly base and a spacious new chalet. Despite increasing numbers of international visitors, Marmot still vibes “Prairie folk,” and parking lots crammed with Alberta plates translated to all eyes in the airy Caribou Lounge glued to a televised women’s curling match between Saskatchewan and Alberta.

If you had to leave this idyll behind, as I did, the Icefields Parkway offered a perfect exit.

IN WINTER, the Canadian roadway that enjoys more world-renown than any other is spectacular in a different kind of way: gone are summer’s aquamarine lakes, wandering wildlife and thick tourist traffic, replaced by an empty road, the wind pluming off razor peaks and a patina of white running to every horizon. The way the high, snow-limned ridges connect to glaciers, the glaciers to treed moraines and the moraines to valley bottoms speaks to the Pleistocene forces that shaped this place.
